	CLASSIFICAT: ON STORET-COUTROL/US OFFICIALS
COUNTRY	Czechoslovakia REPORT NO.
OPIC	Soviet Aircraft in Czechoslovakia 25X1A
	25X1X 25X1A
VALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED
ATE OF CO	ONTENT 25X1C
ATE OBTAI	NEDDATE PREPARED 23 August 1951
EFERENCE	s25X1A
AGES	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
EMARKS_	DEEDENCE SORV
gana anggalagarina (hajir sada liga e seminanak sindak	MELLIU DU
	DO NOT CIRCULATE
1.	25X1X Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings on ict planes were seen at the following airfields:
1.	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day. Informants never mentioned the arrival of Soviet aircraft in
2.	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day.
	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day. Informants never mentioned the arrival of Soviet aircraft in Czechoslovakia. They concordantly stated, however, that Soviet fighter types are being used in the Czechoslovakian Air Force and that Soviet instructors teach in higher headquarters and
2.	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day. Informants never mentioned the arrival of Soviet aircraft in Czechoslovakia. They concordantly stated, however, that Soviet fighter types are being used in the Czechoslovakian Air Force and that Soviet instructors teach in higher headquarters and at schools. * Comment. The information that no Soviet Air Force units are stationed at the airfields mentioned is believed to be correct. Except for some small training details equipped with Soviet jet fighters and bombers which were seen at Hradec Kralove and Zyolen airfields in the last week of May 1951, no
2。 5X1A _*	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day. Informants never mentioned the arrival of Soviet aircraft in Czechoslovakia. They concordantly stated, however, that Soviet fighter types are being used in the Czechoslovakian Air Force and that Soviet instructors teach in higher headquarters and at schools. * Comment. The information that no Soviet Air Force units are stationed at the airfields mentioned is believed to be correct. Except for some small training details equipped with Soviet jet fighters and bombers which were seen at Hradec Kralove and Zyolen airfields in the last week of May 1951, no
2。 5X1A *	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day. Informants never mentioned the arrival of Soviet aircraft in Czechoslovakia. They concordantly stated, however, that Soviet fighter types are being used in the Czechoslovakian Air Force and that Soviet instructors teach in higher headquarters and at schools. * Comment. The information that no Soviet Air Force units are stationed at the airfields mentioned is believed to be correct. Except for some small training details equipped with Soviet jet fighters and bombers which were seen at Hradec Kralove and Zvolen airfields in the last week of May 1951, no Soviets were seen at the main airfields in Czechoslovakia.
2。 5X1A _*	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day. Informants never mentioned the arrival of Soviet aircraft in Czechoslovakia. They concordantly stated, however, that Soviet fighter types are being used in the Czechoslovakian Air Force and that Soviet instructors teach in higher headquarters and at schools. * Comment. The information that no Soviet Air Force units are stationed at the airfields mentioned is believed to be correct. Except for some small training details equipped with Soviet jet fighters and bombers which were seen at Hradec Kralove and Zvolen airfields in the last week of May 1951, no Soviets were seen at the main airfields in Czechoslovakia. December No
2。 5X1A *	Between March and late-May 1951, no aircraft with Soviet markings or jet planes were seen at the following airfields: Piestany (P 49/T 44), Trencin (P 49/T 58), Brno-Slatina (P 50/N 40) and Plzen (N 50/L 04). During the entire period of observation, a twin-jet plane, probably a Me-262, was once seen aloft on 6 May, Armed Forces Day. Informants never mentioned the arrival of Soviet aircraft in Czechoslovakia. They concordantly stated, however, that Soviet fighter types are being used in the Czechoslovakian Air Force and that Soviet instructors teach in higher headquarters and at schools. * Comment. The information that no Soviet Air Force units are stationed at the airfields mentioned is believed to be correct. Except for some small training details equipped with Soviet jet fighters and bombers which were seen at Hradec Kralove and Zvolen airfields in the last week of May 1951, no Soviets were seen at the main airfields in Czechoslovakia.

Air Ev Lo CONFIDENTIAL

CLASSIFICATION SECRET CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY